Small Group Session:

See It: (Small Group Questions)

1. To you, what is the most beautiful part of the picture that God paints for Israel in Jeremiah 33:14-26?
  - How do you think this picture changed people in Jeremiah's day who believed it?
2. Who do you know who seems to have the most hope for the future? Do you think their hope is sound or misplaced?
  - Who do you know who has the least hope for the future? Do you think their hopelessness is sound or misplaced?
3. What does a person have to be confident in for them to be motivated to leave a legacy? As a group, list three things.
  - Which of these things are you personally confident in?
4. What is the most precious legacy that has been left to you?
  - Do you think the person or people who left that legacy knew they were doing it? Why do you think that?
5. What one habit could you install on your birthday every year that would help you leave a lasting legacy?

Tombstone Tweet

Take a few minutes to imagine your funeral—where it is, when it is, who is present, what they are saying. On that day, how do you wish the world that knew you would sum up your life? Write it down. (The shorter the better—50 words max.) Then discuss with your group.
